----------------------------S----------------------------

File Functions

3rd CSE   -March 17, 2014

1. Write a program to count number of words, lines, and vowels in a given file using file functions.
2. Write a program to read contents from a file and display on the screen using file operations.
3. Write a program to read contents from a file and write to another file using file operations
4. Write a program to merge lines alternatively from two files into third file.
5. Write a program to implement HEAD command using file operations.
6. Write a program to implement TAIL command using file operations.
7. Write a program to implement "ls" command.
8. Write a program to implement "grep" command.

----------------------------S----------------------------